“ It has been many years since I last saw Peg Duffy, but I have wonderful memories of the summers I worked with her on public relations and publicity for the Oval in the Grove theater in Farmington which later became the Triangle Playhouse. The theater has been gone a long time, but it gave a lot of pleasure on warm summer nights. As was Peg, I am a Wheaton College graduate and it was that connection plus the fact that I worked in public relations that led me to the assignment. The only pay was the opportunity to see the plays free--something I and my friends did eagerly. I was privileged to know Peg during those years--she was a delightful and talented person.. My sincere sympathy to her family and close friends on her loss. Lillian Kezerian, Hartford.
