

Peg Lundebjerg

December 9, 2015

Margaret “Peg” Lundebjerg, 92, formerly of West Hartford, passed away on December 9, 2015 in Southington, CT. She was born September 23, 1923 in Brooklyn, NY. Peg graduated from St. Joseph’s College in Brooklyn, NY and received her Masters in Nursing from Yale University. She spent the majority of her career as a school nurse at King Philip Elementary School in West Hartford, CT so that she could have time for her children. Upon retiring, she volunteered at St. Francis Hospital, in the rectory at St. Thomas the Apostle Church, and, with her husband Jim, delivering Meals on Wheels. Peg was pre-deceased by her husband Jim in 1999. She is survived by her children, Mary, Jim, Nancy, and Peter; her grandchildren, Julia, Andrew, Kristen, Barbara, and Katie; and her brother Peter Meagher. Memorial donations can be made in Peg’s honor to: St. Joseph’s College, 245 Clinton Avenue, Brooklyn, NY 11205, c/o: Carrie Bhada. A Mass of Christian Burial will be held at 9:00 am on March 19, 2016, at St. Thomas the Apostle Church, 872 Farmington Ave. West Hartford. She will be laid to rest privately in Washington Green Cemetery, Washington, CT.

“ To All the Lundebjergs -

It was with sadness that we read of Peg's passing in the Hartford Courant. She led an active and long life, and we were fortunate to call her a friend. I got to know her as the nurse at King Philip, and we were colleagues for many years. Bob got to know her as a parent of Hall High School students. She was a very caring and outgoing person and had a good sense of humor. We will remember her fondly.

With most sincere sympathy,

Gladys and Bob Dunn

“ Am so sorry to read of your mom's passing. I have wonderful memories of her working at Norfeldt School and visiting her at The Gables.

*With sympathy,
