“ I was saddened to read of Peter's passing to heaven this morning. I was a friend of Peter's at the University of Hartford. We attended many classes together, as History and Government majors. Peter was a positive guy who had an enduring smile. I enjoyed our friendship very much. As happens, in most cases, after College, one loses contact with one another. Suffice to say, I am sure that he was a wonderful father and spouse. My prayers and thoughts go out to his three daughters and extended family##imported-begin##Wayne Williams##imported-end##
