

Philip John Thompson

May 19, 2006

Philip John Thompson, 85, died Friday May 19, 2006 at St. Mary Home, West Hartford. Born in New Rochelle, NY, the son of the late Joseph and Marie Boylan Thompson, he lived in Waterbury for many years before moving to West Hartford in 2000. A US Army WWII veteran, he was a salesman who got his start in the family oyster business, George Thompson and Son of NYC. Philip, who put himself through college at age 60, was an independent spirit. His many interests included current events, sports, history and the outdoors. He is survived by three sisters, Barbara Fischer of Bay Head, NJ, Angela Callahan of Farmington and Colette Evert of Ft. Lauderdale, FL; a brother, George Thompson of NYC; and many nieces and nephews. He is predeceased by three sisters, Marie Louise Sinnott of Larchmont, NY, Agnes Bergman of Genoa, OH and Joan Galbraith of Houston, TX; and two brothers, Paul Thompson of San Antonio, TX and Joseph Thompson of Rochester, NY. Funeral services will begin on Tuesday with visitation at 9:00 am at St. Mary Home, 2021 Albany Ave., followed by a mass of Christian Burial at 10:00 am in the chapel. Burial will be private. Molloy Funeral Home, West Hartford has care of arrangements. In lieu of flowers, donations in his memory may be made to St. Mary Home, 2021 Albany Ave., West Hartford, CT 06117

Tribute Wall

“ Rear side. ,##imported-begin##Gartman6##imported-end##

April 08, 2009 at 12:00 AM