In Loving Memory of Phyllis Pierce

July 12, 1951 – June 10, 2025

Phyllis “Blossom” Pierce, beloved mother, grandmother, sister, and friend, passed away peacefully on June 10, 2025, leaving behind a legacy of love, perseverance, and style. Born on July 12, 1951, in St. Andrews, Jamaica, she was the cherished daughter of Pastorah Williams (Virgo) and Gladstone Price and carried the warmth and vibrance of her island roots throughout her life.

She was the proud mother of three children, Jaime Bellamy, Darren Bellamy, and Monique Pierce, who will forever cherish her unwavering love, and the many memories made together. She was also a devoted grandmother to her only grandchild, Noelle Randall, who brought a light into her life that words could never fully capture.

Phyllis was a woman of simple joys and timeless elegance. She loved cracking through fresh lobster, soaking in the sunshine at the beach, and spending quality time with family. Her signature red nails were always flawless, and her favorite White Diamond perfume lingered softly wherever she went, a graceful reminder of the woman she was.

She leaves behind a loving family, and her siblings: Clover Virgo, Herbert

Virgo, Jenny Virgo, Pauline Josephine Virgo (Devon Wilson), Anne Virgo, Irene Virgo, Robert Price, Sharon Virgo, and Yvonne Alvis (Christopher Alvez Sr.). She is also remembered fondly by her nieces, nephews, extended family, and all who were fortunate enough to know her.

Phyllis was predeceased by her mother Pastorah Virgo (1931–2018) and joins her in eternal rest. Her memory will be carried forward in the hearts of her children, her grandchild, and the family whose lives she touched deeply.
