

Rachel Mowrey

February 7, 2015

Rachel Mowrey, 95, of Farmington Connecticut entered her eternal rest on February seventh after a brief illness. Born in Hartford, Rachel was the daughter of James and Mabel Weir of West Hartford. Rachel was a lifelong resident of West Hartford having attended Hall High and St Joseph's College. She met her husband Harley while serving in the Navy as a radioman at Floyd Bennett Field. She was predeceased by a brother James Weir of Woodbridge and her daughter MaryAnn Halibozek of West Hartford and her son Harley James (Jimmy) of Deland Florida. Rachel made her career at Aetna Casualty. She was a fiercely independent woman, an accomplished gardener and loved to travel, especially to her beloved Scotland. Her greatest joy however was being with her family. She was the loving center about which everything revolved and this was especially so during the holidays. Rachel is survived by her son-in-law John Halibozek of West Hartford and her grandson Matthew Halibozek of South Burlington Vermont. Funeral services and burial at Fairview Cemetery are private and at the convenience of the family
