“ Ray was my power-of-attorney for about six months in 2002 when I had a broken leg. I was so grateful to him for this service! Ray selflessly went to the bank to cash checks for me; he went to the supermarket to buy me goodies, in addition to his other activities, such as going to meetings, driving several people to meetinhgs and other activities, and all this from a man who was then in his mid-sixties. To me, his service to others can only be termed as phenomenal. Additionally, Ray was very soft-spoken and never broadcast the good he did. God love him, and thanks to his family for having such a brother .
