

Raymond J. Johns

March 26, 2015

Raymond J. Johns, age 84, of Inverness, FL died Thursday, March 26, 2015. Ray was born December 24, 1930 (although he thought he was born December 23) in Orange City, FL, son of the late Ottie and Gertrude (Streamas) Johns. Ray was an Army veteran having served during the Korean Conflict. Ray was an avid fisherman, with his father (who knew all the hidden best places to fish in Florida) and brother, in his early years; and later with his best friends, Fred and Paul, they found the best fishing in Long Island Sound. He worked at the Connecticut Bank & Trust as Senior Tax Consultant and Certified Property Manager. He also worked as correspondent Appraiser for the New York Life Insurance Company. He then worked for, and retired from, the State of Connecticut as Supervisor of the Public Works Leasing Department. Ray was preceded in death by his first wife, Dolores Dawley, mother of their six children: Stephen, Peter (Linda Clark) both of West Hartford, Christopher of Tallahassee, Mary (James) Quinn of West Hartford, Timothy of Collinsville, and Elizabeth of West Hartford. He is also preceded in death by his older sister Pauline Kirkpatrick; and his younger brother Randall Johns; and by his second wife and love of his life, Edna Johns. Ray is also survived by his stepdaughter Liz Zeman (Edna's daughter) of Branford; six grandchildren: Charles, Nicholas, Keith, Corey, Katy, Patrick, and Jen; and six great grandchildren: Serf, Evan, Jordan, Grayson, Skylar, and Jameson. Calling hours will be Thursday, April 23, 2015 from 5:00 -8:00 p.m. at Molloy Funeral Home, 906 Farmington Avenue, West Hartford, CT. A graveside service will take place on Friday, April 24, 2015 at 10:00 a.m. at Rose Hill Memorial Park, Rocky Hill, CT.
