

Raymond J. Monahan

June 5, 1934 - March 20, 2014

Raymond J. Monahan, 79, most recently of Abercrombie Drive, Englewood, Florida, died peacefully on Thursday, March 20, 2014, following a brief illness. Ray was born in Hartford, Connecticut on June 5, 1934 and was a resident of West Hartford until 2005. He was predeceased by his wife Patricia Reardon Monahan in 2000, by his former wife and lifelong friend Mary Jane in 2005 and by his brothers George and Jack in 1989 and 2004, respectively. He leaves three sons, Raymond J. Monahan Jr., of Westerly Rhode Island, James E. Monahan and his wife Nicole, of Ipswich, Massachusetts and John B. Monahan of Wakefield, Rhode Island. He also leaves his loving sister, Dolores A. Boyle of East Hartford, four adoring grandchildren and several nieces and nephews. Ray was a U.S Marine and a proud veteran of the Korean War. Prior to his retirement in 2006, he owned and operated Monahan Business Forms, Inc. for 25 years while energetically pursuing his side interest as a gifted architectural designer. Calling hours are Friday, March 28, 2014 from 11 a.m. to 1:00 p.m at the Molloy Funeral Home 906 Farmington Avenue, West Hartford, CT. to be followed by a burial service at the Fairview Cemetery in West Hartford. In lieu of flowers, donations may benefit Friends of the Kpelezo Community School, 27 Summer Street, Ipswich, MA 01938. Online expressions of sympathy may be made at www.molloyfuneralhome.com.

“ Ray, Jim & John -

Wishing you deepest sympathies. He loved all of you boys so much!

I loved your dad immensely! "My Uncle Ray" was one of a kind and he will forever be in my heart! The last time I saw him, he picked me up at work in his beautiful Mercedes convertible and we went to "Effie's Place ("our" spot) for lunch. He was incredibly special to me and I am so proud and lucky to have called him my Uncle.

*Love to all of you,
Sheila*

“ I first knew Ray as a forms customer some forty or so years ago. We became good friends over the years. Ray was a true gentleman and he will be missed by many.

Our condolences go out to his family.
