

Rhoda Faldman

January 9, 2018

Rhoda Faldman, 88, of Bloomfield, passed away on Tuesday, January 9, 2018 after a short illness. Born in New Britain, she was the daughter of the late Henry and Betty Jackaway and the beloved wife of the late Dr. Morton Faldman. Rhoda was a dedicated wife and mom. She loved reading, sailing, the beach, and theatre, but what made her the happiest was spending time with her family. Rhoda leaves her daughter Heidi and son-in-law Tom Turgeon, her granddaughters Caitlyn and husband Joe Dipierro and Jessica Turgeon; her son Clifford Faldman, granddaughter Nikki and husband Will Woods, and granddaughter Tara and husband Francis Serio, and great-granddaughters Lily and Anna. The funeral service will be held on Saturday, January 13, 2018 at 11:00 a.m. at The Molloy Funeral Home, 906 Farmington Ave, West Hartford. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the American Cancer Society. Directions and online expressions of sympathy may be made at www.molloyfuneralhome.com

“ My cherished memories of Rhoda always include her supportiveness, her willingness to listen and share, and her ready smile of welcome. Rehearsals with Rhoda sitting up front were always blessed with a sense that all was right with the theater world because Nan was there for us all.

“ Through her dedication, loyalty, love and support of all of our young actors at the Cirillo Summer Theatre, she embodied the spirit of what it meant to be a true theatre person--selfless, generous, and trusting. She simply loved the art and gave of that love freely, inspiring others to do the same. We'll all miss her so much!
