

Richard G. MacKay

April 9, 2018

Richard G. MacKay, 67, of West Hartford, died April 9, 2018. Born in Hartford, the son of the late William and Florence MacKay, he was raised in Hartford and attended Noah Webster School. He graduated from Loomis Chaffee in Windsor and went on to graduate from Colby College and completed his graduate degree at Brown University. Richard taught at Watertown Public Schools and also worked for the State of Connecticut Department of Consumer Protection. He is survived by his brother William M. MacKay of Boston, MA. Richard loved cats. In lieu of flowers, please make donation to the Connecticut Humane Society, 701 Russell Rd, Newington, CT 06111. Online expressions may be made at www.molloyfuneralhome.com

Tribute Wall

DT

“ Dick loved people, animals, nature, music, sports and more. He had a great perspective on life. Gone too soon. Great memories, David Tangarone

David Tangarone - April 22, 2018 at 01:33 PM

AF

“ Dick was my friend for the past 30 years; I have a lot of great memories of him, going to Whalers games, to the lake in Barkhamsted, shooting pool and playing pool basketball when I lived in Avon. We talked sports quite often over the years, mostly Uconn women basketball and New York Giants. I'm going to really miss him; he was one of the best people I've ever known. RIP my friend. Allan Findlay

Allan Findlay - April 12, 2018 at 12:27 PM