“ To Shirley,

I wish that I could be there with you in person to comfort you, though you know that I will be there soon after. Be strong and let those who are around you comfort you. I love you forever.

*To Bobby,
I have only heard good things about how strong you've been and how helpful you are. Your father must be so proud looking down on you. he is a very lucky man. I love you truly.*

Love Rosie and family

To Vanessa,

My big girl, I wish that I could there to comfort you. I know that you will be strong and brave as always. I Love you baby girl.

May God bless you all and my prayers are with you everyday.

“ What I remember most,

the last day I saw him, we were all planning to take a trip to N. Y. and at the last minute canceled. He looked at me and shrugged and he said "that's life" with his arms extending to the side and a smile that just makes smile back. As he began to make a "bon-fire".

what I'll remember most,

it's when you walked into their home you always felt welcome.

What I'll remember most,

is his laughter, when he laughed, it would make you laugh even more.

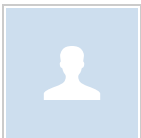

What I'll remember most,

is hanging out in the garage arguing about who's beer was the better, of course his was, since it was "imported".

I will always remember you, my friend and cuz-by-law

“ *My dear uncle Robert, Words can't begin to express the empty feeling that you have left in my heart. I can't even believe that this has happened. I have nothing but fond memories of you and I will always remember your sense of humor, your beautiful smile, and the loving person that you were. Growing up, you were always very close to me, Ely, and Yuyu, and because of that I will ALWAYS love you. I know that you are in a better place now but the selfish side of me still wishes that you were here with everyone that loves you. I will never forget you. Love, your niece...Vivian###imported-
