

Roland D. Hazard Sr.

December 18, 2018

Roland D. Hazard Sr., 88, of West Hartland, beloved husband of Eleanor (Ransom) Hazard, passed away peacefully on December 18, 2018. Born in Winchester the son of Frank and Ada Hazard, he was long time resident of West Hartland. Roland retired from the State Highway Department. He was an Air Force Veteran. Roland was a giving and kind man, he and Eleanor opened their house to foster children helping over 70 infants over many years. In addition to his beloved wife he is survived by his daughters; Jane of Farmington, Jennifer and her partner Adam of Torrington, and son Mark of Maine. His grandchildren, great grandchildren, and a sister Mildred Cole of West Hartland also survive him. He was predeceased by a son; Roland Dale Jr., and daughter Jo Ann Hazard, as well as his brother Franklin Hazard. Funeral Services and burial were private. On behalf of all of us we will never forget your strength, kindness and guidance, we will never forget you.

Tribute Wall

“ Jen, Adam, and the Hazard Family - We are so sorry for your loss. May your memories give you peace and comfort.

Kurt, Linda, Erik, and Evan Weisheit

Linda - December 29, 2018 at 03:51 PM