

Rose Z. Albright

January 21, 2005

Rose Z. Albright

Rose Zaccagnino Albright, daughter of Peter and Celia Zaccagnino passed away in West Hartford on Friday after a short illness. She was 89.

She was predeceased by her brothers Daniel Zaccagnino of West Hartford and Attorney Peter Zaccagnino of Hartford and Pompano Beach, Florida.

Born in Hartford, she was a graduate of Weaver High School. She was employed for over 52 years by the Connecticut State Police and served as an assistant to five state police commissioners until her retirement in 1985. Rose was an avid artist and former community theater actress with the Cue and Curtain theater group. She had a unique way of communicating with children and raising their self esteem. She leaves a brother, Canio Zaccagnino of Rocky Hill, 4 nephews, 6 grand nieces and grand nephews and a great grand niece.