

Rosemary Ellsworth

January 17, 2015

Rosemary Ellsworth of Unionville and Avon, beloved wife of the late Robert Ellsworth, died on Saturday, January 17, 2015, after a long illness. She was the daughter of Lawrence and Wilhemina Weidmann of Burlington, Iowa. She is survived by her six children: Michael (Ellen), Linda (Robert Shively), John (Barbara), Renee, Stephen (Doreen), and Bob. Rosemary had 15 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren, whom she adored and who adored her. She is also survived by her brother Larry Weidmann (Joanne) and many nieces and nephews. Rosemary was a professional model for many years, and also won Mrs. Connecticut. Later she was a successful realtor in the Simsbury/Avon area. A Mass of Christian Burial will be held on Saturday, January 24 at 10:00 AM at St. Peter Claver Church, 47 Pleasant Street, West Hartford, with burial to follow immediately at Fairview Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that contributions be made to St. Peter Claver Church, where Rosemary was a long-time parishioner. “ So sorry to hear about Rosemary's death. We were close with Rosemary and Bob, especially during the years she lived in the Washington area. She was a sweet and lovely person, and the two of them were wonderful together.

“ I was saddened to hear about Rosemary's death. I met her in the 70's, just before her marriage to Bob, when I was a deacon at St. Peter's Church in Hartford. She has always been one classy, beautiful lady! May she rest in peace, as she invokes The Lord's blessing on her family!

Blessings for Rosemary, Bob and families! I first met Rosemary prior to her marriage to Bob when she worked for the CT Valley Girl Scout Council in the late 70's or early 80's as the Public Relations Director for the Council. Such a delight to work with and her appreciation for the service of volunteers. Thank you Rosemary for all you did for so many. Love, Prescille Yamamoto
