

Roy Cutter

May 25, 2020

Roy A. Cutter, 102, of Bloomfield, CT formerly of Staten Island died May 25, 2020 in Hartford CT. Roy was a longtime Staten Islander, he was born there, graduated from High School, and Wagner College and established his career as an insurance agent all on the island. In fact his Army service during World War II was the only time he left the area prior to moving to be closer to his family later in life. Roy met his beloved late wife Doris (Combs) at Trinity Lutheran Church on Staten Island after the war. They were together until her death 7 years ago after 64 years of marriage. Roy was a loving father, husband, world traveler and very active in his community, on the boards of the Staten Island Museum and Salvation Army, president of Richmond County Kiwanis Club. And a member of the Richmond County Country Club. He is survived by his daughter Carol E. Geraghty and her husband Michael of West Hartford CT, his grandchildren; Alison Bethke (Andrew), and Colin Geraghty (Lisa), and great grandchildren; Luke and Hannah Bethke, and Brooke and Sean Geraghty. Additionally, he is survived by a close friend Muriel Murphy of Bloomfield. Funeral Service and burial in CT Veterans Cemetery were private. Molloy Funeral Home, West Hartford CT had care of arrangements.
