

Ruth S. Jackson

January 13, 1933 - September 18, 2024

Ruth Silverstein Jackson, 91, of Bloomfield, passed away peacefully Wednesday, September 18, 2024, at her home surrounded by her loving family. She was born in the Bronx, New York and later graduated from Weaver high school Hartford, Connecticut.

She was the beloved wife of Harold B Jackson, retired chief of police in Bloomfield, Connecticut, who passed away in 2001. She devoted the first nine years of marriage to raising two sons. She was a mother, sister, grandmother, and great grandmother and aunt. The family enjoyed many summers at Old Colony Beach, Connecticut, then later Misquamicut, Rhode Island. Ruth worked for the town of Bloomfield for 62 years as a school crossing guard and in the school cafeteria. She was an avid knitter, a fan of the UConn women's basketball team, and longtime member of Beth Hillel synagogue.

She is survived by two sons Steven S. Jackson and Iran Jackson and his wife Andrea; her sister, Toby and husband, Bernie Goldstein; cherished grandchildren, Jamie Jackson and her life-long companion Chris Zaino, Daniel Jackson and his wife Lindsay, Dean Jackson, Joshua and Sydney Reichin and her husband Justin; great grandchildren Rue, Dahlia and Maura; devoted niece, Gayle Santee; niece Tracy Paparian; nephews Jay and Seth Goldstein, Scott Gilman, and Mark Rabbett; and several great nieces and nephews. Ruth was predeceased by her sister, Celia Gilman, and sister-in-law Jane Rabbett.

The family expresses a heartfelt appreciation to Ruth's nurse and caregivers.

A memorial service will be held on Tuesday, September 24 at B'nai Tikvoh-Sholom synagogue, 180 Still Rd., Bloomfield at 11 AM, with reception to follow. Donations in her memory may be made to Bloomfield Ambulance Association. May her memory be a source of strength and a blessing to all. Arrangements are in the care of Molloy Funeral Home and Hebrew Funeral Association, of West Hartford.
