“ We were so sorry to learn of Sally's death. We live on Treeborough Drive now, but we go way back with your parents to when we lived on Linbrook Rd. and you all lived on Linnard. Our sons, Jeff and Andy, were in Kingswood with Phil, and Jeff and Sarah were in a dancing school carpool together when in Morley School. Those were good days. Your Dad was our family dentist for years. He was a true gentleman, and also a very gentle man. Your Mom was a charmer, so pretty, and so full of life and energy. It is sad that you have lost two such wonderful parents so close together. We send our deepest sympathy to all of you. We are sorry that we will be out of town at the time of the funeral.

“ I was both shocked and saddened to open the paper today and see Sally's death notice. While I knew of her battle with the disease, I did not know she was so close to a home-going.

Sally has been a part of my life since childhood. I'm sure that I crossed through her backyard more times than she cared to know.

That was part of living in a family-filled neighborhood...it was great!

As an adult, I have know Sally through dancing with her at "Miss Helyn's." The Sophisticated Ladies of which she and my mom were a parthave been my role models for living a full and vibrant life.

They have been with me through everything the last 15 years have brought, joys and sorrows.

My annual unofficialrecital assignment was to affix Sally's false eyelashes. Why she trusted my clumsy fingers, I do not know, but I do know how much I now treasure the memory.

My heartfelt sympathy and prayers are with you all. Sally will be dearly missed.

Sincerely,
