

Sarah Kurosky

May 18, 2007

Sarah Ernestine ?Tina? Kurosky of West Hartford, CT died Friday May 18, 2007 surrounded by her loving family after a brief illness. She is predeceased by her husband Edward L. Kurosky, who died November 1997.

Sarah, affectionately known to many as Tina or Teen, was born in Old Chilhowee in Blount County, TN in the foothills of the Great Smokey Mountains, to the late Charity Ann Graves and John Huston Rogers II. One of nine children, she is predeceased by three brothers and survived by five sisters: Elizabeth Peterson, Georgia Irwin, Pauline Smith, Norma Sloan and Bettie Butler ? all who continue to live in the Southeast in Tennessee and Georgia, as well as many cousins, nieces and nephews.

Sarah is also survived by three daughters: Jocelyn Vallieres, and her husband Roger and children Hilary and Olivia, of Surrey England; Bridget Vanderslice, and her husband Dan and step-children Christopher and Jason, of Waxahachie, TX; and Carrie-Lynn Whitney, and her husband John of North Granby, CT.

Retired from Phoenix Mutual Company after many successful years of service, Tina was a hard-working and loving mother and grandmother; a devoted sister, a loyal friend and a kind neighbor. She will be well-remembered for her southern hospitality, cheerful nature, good humor and green thumb.

A private burial will take place at Cedar Hill Cemetery and the family invites friends and neighbors to join in celebrating her life during a Memorial Service scheduled for Tuesday, May 29, 2007 at 11:00 am. at Asylum Hill Congregational Church, 814 Asylum Ave. Hartford, CT.
