

Sarah C. Moore

October 22, 2017

Sarah C. Moore of West Hartford, age 91, entered into her eternal home to be with Jesus on Sunday Oct 22. She was born in Philadelphia, PA and was raised in Vineland, New Jersey. A happy mother of two children, she loved homemaking. She enjoyed sewing, cooking and gardening. She loved her country, was very patriotic and supported veterans. Her love for learning led her to completing high school later in life, receiving her diploma in 1976.

Sarah is survived by her daughter Susan Yeagle of West Hartford, her son Edward Yeagle and his wife Diane of West Suffield; two grandsons, Jason Yeagle and his wife Ayn of Massachusetts and Brian Yeagle and his partner Ayn in Pennsylvania; two great granddaughters Macy and Mia; her sister Anna Keeper of Florida, her brother John Moore and his wife Gladys of New Jersey and her sister Elizabeth Keen and her husband David in Florida.

A private burial will be held at the convenience of the family. The family asks that donations in her memory be shared with charities of individual choice, Sarah's being Samaritan's Purse.
