Sarah Roberta (Feingold) Seltzer of Hartford passed away on Saturday, December 24th. Born in Hartford to Harold and Helen Feingold, Sarah was the youngest of three children. Along with her older siblings Bert and Hilda, Sarah enjoyed trips to the beach with her family and friends, often celebrating the holidays with her Aunt Bea, Uncle Jack and cousins Harriet, Danny, Josh and Susie. After completing a secretarial program at Cambridge Junior College, Sarah went on to earn a Certificate in Food Service at Manchester Community College. While at MCC, Sarah was an honor student and received an award for Outstanding Supported Education Student. Sarah married her husband Nathan in 1978. Nathan and Sarah enjoyed travelling to visit relatives in Arizona, trips to Disney World and Graceland, and time with their beloved cats. As a bank clerk, Sarah worked at the Bank of Hartford for over a decade. Sarah also worked as a floor supervisor at the Arc Favarrh for several years, and at Manchester Hospital and the Greater Hartford Council on Alcoholism.

After Nathan's passing in 2010, Sarah joined a choir, spent time with cherished friends, and enjoyed outings to restaurants and social events.
