“ Good-bye Stephanie!

*Good-bye, Sweet Lady . . .
You were indeed a lady of pride and dignity.*

Oh, the words don't come easily - although we'd known you, for what seems like a life-time.

You are with Jim now. He is no doubt still blowing glass and you are in the kitchen preparing a feast for your love.

Yours was a strong enduring union, out of which you bore five beautiful children.

We can't think of you without thinking of Jim, as well; for you were one, you were inseparable.

We are better people for having known you both. Our lives are rich with golden memories.

You are gone now, but will live long and well in the stories we will share along the way, as we continue with our journey through life.

We will miss you.
