“ Dear Mrs. Riley:

Hearing of Steve's passing both saddens me and brings back some heartwarming memories of our time together at Kingswood in the 70's. Please accept my heartfelt condolences and know that I will think of Steve from time to time, making him not only a part of the past, but a part of the future as well.

My family and I are thinking about Steve, and you.

Best, Ron Goldstein##imported-begin##Ron Goldstein##imported-end##

“ I first met Steve through the Bank Compliance Association of Connecticut, where he served on the Board for a number of years. He was a respected and well-like professional; always willing to help out with projects, arrange meetings, do research, whatever was needed. We will miss him. my deepest sympathy to his family and friends.###imported-begin###Judy Geiger###imported-end###

“ Mrs. Riley,
Hearing of Steve's passing reminded me of how fragile life is. I recall our many rounds of golf at Middlebury College and all of the car rides back and forth to Midd. as a special part of my young adult life. During the long drives, Steve and I would often argue over where to stop for a snack. These discussions taught me that Burger King, or as the Riley family referred to them "burger doodle," burgers are made fresh. I learned a lot being Steve's roommate - some of it was golf related, but most of it was the way to look at life. Steve approached each day with childlike optimism. He never seemed to consider failure when he embarked on an endeavor. It is this memory of Steve that I will carry the longest. Having been Steve's college roommate for a year, and his friend for many years, I wish to extend my sincerest condolences to all of his family.##imported-begin##Richard Hanbury##imported-end##

“ I only knew Steve for a short time by having come to do work for the bank that he worked at. In the short time we were acquainted I came to know Steve as a genuine person and a dedicated professional. It was easy to come to appreciate Steve as a person and for his contribution to his Bank. He will be missed. My thoughts are with you, his family and friends.##imported-begin##Tom Jendrysik##imported-end##

“ Irene,
Our son, David, called us in Naples to inform us of Stephen's untimely death. We thought the world of him and can only imagine your grief at this time. Bob always gave him the full credit for getting David to play golf as a youngster. We were always grateful for his interest in his younger fellow competitor. He was always a gentleman and showed great interest in all our children. We will miss him.
May God bless you and have Stephen with Him at this time.
Warmly,##imported-begin##Lorraine & Bob Albanesi##imported-end##
