“ Long ago, we played together in Fiddler’s Creek, Titusville, New Jersey, catching crayfish...just having fun....halcyon days. We had to make a path through the cornfield to get to the creek and to one another. “ Susie Scammell” was a few years younger than I, a cute, fun playmate, and I had always hoped she had had a wonderful life, as I have had. God bless.

“ My condolences to your family on the loss of a special lady. I enjoyed painting on Monday's at Carolyn Emerson's studio with her. She had such strength through her illness - she was a very brave woman. I will think of her often with gratitude for having had a chance to have known her for a small part of her life. I will miss her lovely smile.
Sincerely,
Bonnie Lindland
