

Suzanne Gorman

June 2, 2005

Suzanne Dolce Gorman, of West Hartford, died peacefully at home with her children beside her on Thursday, June 2, 2005. She was the daughter of the late Paul and Mary Dolce. She and her late husband, Francis J. Gorman, were long-time residents of West Hartford. Mrs. Gorman was predeceased by her sister, Evelyn Cormier, her brother, Victor Dolce, and her close cousin Rosemary Filley. Always a gregarious and warm hearted person, she was known to many as a close and loyal friend. When her children were young, Mrs. Gorman, a member of St. Thomas the Apostle Church, was actively involved in the Mothers' Circle and Women's Committees. She was a former member of the West Hartford Women's Club and the University Women's Club, as well as serving on the Women's Committee of the Mark Twain Memorial. For over 30 years she served on the board of the Connecticut Opera Guild and was especially proud of her work helping to organize the Guild's Children's Puppet Theatre of which she was also lead puppeteer. A woman of many interests and enthusiasms, in her last years she continued to enjoy playing the piano and reading. Mrs. Gorman is survived by her daughter Barbara Trice and her husband Franklin of Richmond VA, and two sons, Frank Gorman Jr., and his wife Michele, and Robin Gorman, both of West Hartford; her grandchildren, Franklin Trice III and his wife Charmaine, Holt Trice of Richmond and Holly Trice and her fiancé R.V. Mayfield of Atlanta, GA, Anique Fleming and her husband Cameron of Brooklyn Heights, NY, and Gareth Gorman and his wife Katherine of Boston, MA; and three great grandchildren, Brittany, Connor and Hunter Fleming. Friend and relatives are invited to join Mrs. Gorman's family on Sunday from 3-5 p.m. at the Molloy Funeral Home, 906 Farmington Ave., West Hartford.
