“ Dear Barb,
I was so sorry to hear about Tim. I remember when I first met him - he was my underwriter trainer! We did have some good times. Remember all those happy memories and they will help get you through this difficult time. You are in our thoughts and prayers. PS. When you feel up to it call me sometime.##imported-begin##Ken and Evie Werra##imported-end##

“ Barb,
Mary and I were shocked to see Tim's funeral notice. We will always remember our fun times at ChiChi's, commiserating over Capital Bankers and seeking refuge from its President Dick Beightol. Although we haven't seen you all in years nor been in the same industry to stay in touch, we offer our prayers and sympathies. Tim was such a great friend to so many and the world will be a sadder place without him.
God bless you and your family.
