

Vera Reznikoff-Klein

May 22, 2021

Vera Reznikoff-Klein, 82, of 10 Kirkwood Road., West Hartford, wife of Eugene Klein, passed away in her home on Saturday, May 22, 2021, with her family at her side. She served as the Visitor Center Manager at The Mark Twain House and a Historic Interpreter at the Mark Twain House and the Harriet Beecher Stowe House. Vera was an Honorary Lifetime Docent at the Wadsworth Atheneum, a life member of the Hartford Stage Hands, and was a second-generation lifetime member of Hadassah. She also served as a Board Member for the Solomon Schechter Day School and was on the Parent's Committee for Union College, where she chaired bi-annual Board meetings. Vera received a bachelor's degree at Mills College of Education in New York City and thus volunteered as a kindergarten teacher for students in Mexico. Born and raised in New York City, Vera was known for her sharp wit and fiery spirit. She is survived by her son, Paul Klein of New York City, NY, daughter Ilana Klinger and her husband, Lee of New York City, NY; three grandchildren, Logan, Hayden, and Sukii Klinger.

Previous Events

Graveside Service

MAY 25. 11:00 AM (ET)

New Montifiore Cemetery

1180 Wellwood Ave.

West Babylon , NY

<http://newmontefiorecemetery.org/>

Tribute Wall

SF

“ Vera was a great friend. We could talk about anything together. She was fun, funny, and had lots of great stories and ideas for dealing with life. She loved her family, her friends, her cats, her dogs, her macaw, and I'm glad I got to be friends with her for almost 30 years.

Stephanie C. Fox - May 24, 2021 at 10:00 PM