“ Somehow our family lost touch with our beloved Aunt Vera. She was a "great" Aunt in that she was married to our grandmother's brother. Always cheerful and offering a cup of tea with some Irish Bread when we visited her at home in Newington. Thank you to all who cared for her in her last days.

“ I met Veronica a few years ago at Village Crest Rehabilitation Center while I was a volunteer. I sat outside with her and we talked, even though she could only say a few words, i knew she was a beautiful person, and we became good friends. I saw her several times a week, and then every once in a while as time went by. I loved her very much, and I miss her dearly already. I cannot attend the services, because I won't be in town, but if you could just know that I'm with you in spirit, and that I love Veronica and hope she's only up there with the best.
