

Vincent DiBenedetto

January 5, 2021

Vincent DiBenedetto died Tuesday, January 5, 2021 in Honolulu, HI. He is survived by his wife, Christine; his daughters Kerryann and son-in-law Lance French, Susanne and her partner Steven Fazo, and his son, Michael; Christine's three children John O'Connell, Alexis Nielsen and Kathleen O'Connell and granddaughter Zara Neilsen; his sister, Jeanann Sanders and her husband Ben; his sister in-law, Barbara DiBenedetto. He was preceded in death by his wife Eileen and his brother Michael.

Dad, Dr. D, Vincent was an incredibly kind, considerate, giving and loving man. He lit up a room, went with the flow and brought joy to whomever he touched. He spent his retired years enjoying the Hawaiian paradise, sunset happy hours and reading books.

Due to COVID-19 restrictions, funeral services will be Tuesday at 12:30 pm at Fairview Cemetery, 200 Whitman Ave. West Hartford.

“ Vincent was one of the nicest men we’ve known. It was a pleasure to visit with him and Chris in Hawaii and see what a lovely life they have built together. He will be missed and our hearts go out to you Christine and to Vincent’s children.

“ My cousin Vinny

*He was one of THE BEST men I know !!
He loved to laugh and be with family and loved his work. He was a loving father, a loving husband, a loving brother, a loving cousin, a loving friend.*

He was a amazing, and like his father and uncles before him, he belonged to that generation of men, the DiBenedetto’s 💕💕

*“And He will raise you up on eagle's wings,
Bear you on the breath of dawn,
Make you to shine like the sun,
And hold you in the palm of His Hand”*

“ We met Vincent when he married our long-time friend, Christine O’Connell. He was a warm and gentle man, one we took to immediately. He and Chris had a very loving few years together, bringing much joy to each other. He will be missed by many. My God Bless him and hold Vincent in the palm of his hand.

“ Dr. D was an incredibly warm and loving man. He exuded happiness and always brought smiles to the faces of all the Curis'. He was the first dentist who made me comfortable in the chair, singing care, calm and comfort -- even if he wasn't always on key. What a great man!
