

Vincent Parisi

August 8, 2005

Vincent Parisi of Bloomfield, Connecticut formerly of Sun City Center, Florida passed away in his eightieth year on Monday, August 8, 2005 at Hartford Hospital. He is survived by his wife of fifty-five years, Betty Block Parisi of Bloomfield, Connecticut, his four children ? Richard Parisi and his wife Joanne, of Liverpool, New York, Brian Parisi of Tampa, Florida, Rita Parisi and her life partner, John Foley, of Bloomfield, Connecticut, and Paul Parisi of Tampa, Florida, as well as two granddaughters, Katherine Parisi of Liverpool, New York and Kimberly Parisi of Buffalo, New York.

A memorial service will be held at Sacred Heart Church, 26 Wintonbury Avenue, Bloomfield, Connecticut on Thursday, August 18, 2005 at 11 a.m. Relatives and friends are cordially invited to attend.

In lieu of flowers the family has requested that donations be made either to VNA HealthCare, 103 Woodland Street, Hartford, Connecticut 06105 or to the Hartford Hospital Geriatric Medicine Program, 80 Seymour Street, Hartford, Connecticut 06115.

Vince was a native of Syracuse, New York and attended Syracuse University. A salesman all of his life, Vince served for 20 years as Regional Sales Manager for Oneida Silversmiths. He was a talented organist who regularly entertained friends and colleagues. Vince was a veteran of the United States

Army. Molloy Funeral Home, West Hartford Connecticut has care of arrangements.