

William Barnett Lewis

April 28, 1910 - February 4, 2010

William Barnett Lewis, 99, of West Hartford, the husband of Ruth M. Connolly Lewis, died Thursday Feb. 4, 2010. Born in Meriden, the son of the late Walter and Alice Barnett Lewis, he was a graduate of Meriden High School and had resided in West Hartford the past 59 years. Bill worked as a Standards Engineer for the former Pratt & Whitney Small Tool in West Hartford. He was a former member of West Hartford Civitan Club serving as its' Treasurer and Chaplin for over 25 years. He was a member of the Standards Engineer Society, and was an active bowler and golfer. Private funeral arrangements were handled by the Molloy Funeral Home, West Hartford. Memorial contributions may be made to the Sisters of Mercy Retirement Fund, 55 East Cedar St. Newington, CT 06111.

Tribute Wall

“ Extending my sympathies to Ruth, on behalf of Dick and Ginny Rossberg. ##imported-begin##Susan Howard Hallett##imported-end##

February 05, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ West Hartford lost one of its finest citizens yesterday. Besides his lifelong work and contributions to the community, Bill was a great conversationalist, story teller and made us all laugh with his witty sense of humor. He was an expert turkey carver, knew how to train dogs and fix most anything.

He will be sorely missed.

I extend my condolences to Ruth and Bill's many friends and acquaintances.

With sympathy, ##imported-begin##Bob Duncan##imported-end##

February 05, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ Bill made the world a better place to be in by just being here. I will always remember his humor, large smile, and hugs. I love you Bill. ##imported-begin##Caroline & Don Johnson##imported-end##

February 05, 2010 at 12:00 AM