

William Gigliuto

April 14, 2014

William Gigliuto, 66, of West Hartford, died Monday, April 14, 2014, at his home after a valiant and courageous battle with throat cancer. Born in Hartford, the son of the late Vincent Gigliuto and Lena (Silberman) Gigliuto Weiser, he made his home in Hartford and West Hartford for his entire life. Billy proudly served in the US Air Force and was employed in the construction industry holding various supervisory positions. He is survived by his loving and devoted son William J. Gigliuto of West Hartford; and his sister Brenda Massa and her husband Richard of Windsor Locks. The family would like to thank Kenton Rawlins for his dedication and care which he provided during this journey. A gathering will be held on Friday from 3-6 p.m. at the Molloy Funeral Home, 906 Farmington Ave., West Hartford, with words of remembrances being shared at 4:30 p.m. Donations in his memory may be made to 3goingforward.com.

“ *My deepest sympathy to Billy. You have been a wonderful son-- more than any father could hope for. I'm sure your father loved you very much and I hope now that he'll look out for you as you did for him for so many years.
My heart is with you Billy.*
